

Calibration decides whether the detector works: heavy tails, the read-out, and the held-out false-positive rate.

